

Happy Birthday My Precious

Hey sweetie! Happy Birthday!!! You're 23 now baby! You're getting old baby 🤔🤔. I remember spending your birthday with you last year and I got confused when we played Bingo 🤔🤔. I really do love you baby, you're the most amazing man ever! I love spending time with you! I know I say this a lot but you're the best thing that's ever happened to me! I know I took ages confessing to you about how I felt about you but I was confused at the time, like I wanted to be with you but I got nervous about how other people would react. Now I don't care what people think, all I want is to be with you!!!

I really want to be with you forever and ever! You make me so so happy and I want to hold you all the time and just never let go! I've never met anyone that makes me feel like this and I never want it to end! I love spoiling you baby, I love how happy it makes you and it helps me to show how much I love you! I love having food with you as well baby! I love it when we're on holiday as I get to have breakfast, lunch and dinner with you! I really do love doing everything with you and I just want to spend my future with you, doing things together and making memories together! When we're older we can then look back at the memories and have a laugh and smile together! I love taking pictures with you too, it makes me happy when we look back at them. I really really do love you loads and loads Alex! You're my soulmate! You're literally my everything! I care about you so much and I know at times it doesn't look like it but trust me I really really do care about you!
